A picnic to share

Today’s goal

Name eight foods and drinks.
Ask for something politely.

Let’s warm up

Say, point or show.

What would you take on a picnic?
Name a food or drink you already know.

Look, listen and say

Words 1–2

apple

sandwich

Look, listen and say

Words 3–4

juice

milk

Look, listen and say

Words 5–6

banana

cheese

Look, listen and say

Words 7–8

cake

Find it!

Listen to your teacher.

Point to the cheese. Then find the juice.

Use all eight words from slides 3–6 if you need them.

Remember without looking

No picture clues this time.

Hide the pictures. Name two drinks.
Remember three foods.

Which one does not belong?

Give a reason.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| milk | juice | hat | sandwich |

I think … because …

Talk with a partner

Take turns. Then change roles.

A: Can I have a sandwich, please?
B: Here you are.
A: Thank you.

A2: Ask for two items and say why.
Use: I would like … because …

Make a small plan

Choose. Explain. Ask a question.

Plan a picnic for two fictional friends.
Choose food and a drink. Ask what they like.

Your turn — on your own

Write or say your answers.

1. Write three items for a picnic.

2. Ask politely for one item.

3. Say what you like or do not like.

Check and explain

More than one personal answer can work.

Recognition: cheese, then juice.
Odd one out: hat.
Drinks: milk and juice. Picnic choices vary; check clear, polite requests.

Odd one out: hat — the others are food or drinks.

Keep practising with Playclass

The lesson works offline. This extra game needs internet.

Try the game.
Then teach a partner one new word.
