Письмо другу на английском: учимся отвечать по существу

Original student practice

Письмо другу должно отвечать на его вопросы и сообщать что-то новое, а не только начинаться с Dear. Разберите четыре разные ситуации, выберите нужные опоры и напишите собственное короткое сообщение. Это учебная практика, а не шаблон с гарантией экзаменационного балла.

School

Hi Maya,
Thanks for your message. You asked about my school day. Lessons start at half past eight, and I usually have five lessons. My favourite subject is art because I enjoy making things. This week we are drawing a map of our classroom. What is your favourite lesson? Do you have an art club after school?
Write back soon.
Best wishes,
Leo

A weekend change

Dear Sam,
Thank you for your email. Last Saturday I wanted to ride my bike, but it rained all morning. My cousin came to our house, so we made a board game instead. We drew a town and invented funny street names. It took longer than we expected, but we liked the result. What did you do at the weekend? Which indoor game do you enjoy? I hope to hear from you soon.
Best,
Nina

A club plan

Hi Alex,
It was good to hear from you. You asked about our new school club. We are going to start a reading club next month. Everyone will bring a short book and one question about it. I want to choose a story about a lost robot. We have not chosen a meeting day yet. What kind of stories do you like? Would you choose a funny book or an adventure?
Write soon.
Best wishes,
Rosa

A pet question

Dear Jamie,
Thanks for telling me about your cat. I have not got a pet, but I sometimes help my uncle look after his dog. We take the dog to a quiet park and practise simple commands. I like these walks because I can spend time outside with my uncle. I do not want to get a pet until my family is ready. What does your cat like doing? Who helps you take care of it?
Take care.
Best,
Amir

1. The greeting. Hi Maya and Dear Sam address the reader before the main message.

2. Answer them meaningfully. The message needs to respond to the friend's information needs, not only follow a layout.

3. Best wishes,. Best wishes is a suitable friendly closing in these models.

4. A weekend change. Nina's planned bike ride changes because of the rain.

5. We are going to start … next month. The plan and next month place the club start in the future.

6. No. A fictional school email can meet the learning goal without a personal address.
